Tuxedo Amateurs to Appear in Own Film Melodrama

'The Kick in It' Story of a Moonshine Still Written by Miss Edith Percy Morgan.

The Kick in It." a filmed melodrama aged and acted by amateurs in the uxedo Park colony, will be shown for the first time at the Tuxedo Club on the first time at the Tuxedo Club on the evening of October 8 for the benefit of the College Settlement at Mount Ivy and the Tuxedo Hospital.

The scenario is based on a report which appeared in the newspapers last spring that a wild family had been found in the Ramapo Mountains within a few miles of Tuxedo Park. The romance of that family, into which has been introduced a moonshine still and a jealous lover, has been made by Miss Edith Percy Morgan into a three reel thriller.

"Blossom Time" Is Schubert Melodies

Quaint Old World Atmosphere to Operetta Based on Composer's Romances.

The operetta called "Blossom Time." had been awaited rather more impa-tiently than most works of the kind. It was known to a number of theatre-goers, at least as the phrase is, by reputation. This knowledge had, more-over, prejudiced all in its favor. The piece is in a measure a survival of the war. When the Central Powers boods, under threat of exposing to the town, which wants him for Mayor, that the McCauley was once alpped for bootlegging—which, as things go nowadays, might not be considered so disgraceful by a town.
